7. SCHOOL'S ITEMS

7.1 School Reports

It was noted that all reports listed below under items 7.2 to 7.13 had been circulated to governors for information prior to the meeting and questions were invited.

7.2 Head of School Report

Teaching & Learning

Q – How did the observations this week go?

A – Most teachers had been observed, all graded at good or higher

Q – Any recommendations on the back of the observations?

A – Following observations there are normally some recommendations which is the normal process for most schools.

The lesson observations that have taken place so far show a considerable improvement.

7.4 Worship Report

Q- Do we have ways to show a practical outpouring of worship?

A- We have two leaders working on every class having a community action with a focus on being 'agents of change'. This will take place in February.

7.5 FGM Report

All staff have received the annual training. A discussion ensued regarding the responsibilities of the school in regards to FGM.

Q- Do you have any concerns re FGM for children in school currently?

A- Not currently.

ACTION: Send FGM training to all governors

7.6 Radicalisation Report

No questions were raised.

Deborah Haworth left the meeting at 10.25am

7.7 Disciplinary Presentation

Ms Carlene Reid provided a governor briefing on the disciplinary process with specific reference to LGB roles and responsibilities in this process.

Q When making decisions what if 2 agree but 1 doesn't on a panel?

A – The Chair of the panel has the final decision.

Q – If someone is dismissed with no pay for gross misconduct do they have the right to appeal?

A – Yes.

Q- What if we didn't have enough governors to complete a panel?

A- We buy into Governors Service's so would be able to access other governors

Q- Would a staff governor be on the panel?

A – No.

Q- What if a member of staff attended a disciplinary with a solicitor rather than a union rep?

A- They would be asked to leave, it is stated in the invite letter that legal representation is not invited.

ACTION: Send all governors Carlene's email and phone number

Carlene Reid left the meeting at 10.50 am
