

Year 3 Home Learning – Miss A Haq

Reading.

Read at least 5 times every week for 30 minutes and record it in your Reading Record book.

Make comments in your reading record.

Tell me:

- 1) Who are the characters?
- 2) Where is the setting of the story?
- 3) Write a summary of the story.

Writing.

Imagine that you are a journalist in Rome, you visit the market to find that there is an auction taking place. Write a report for the local newspaper to let Barking know about what you have just witnessed!

Make sure to use subordinating conjunctions and preposition of time.

Handwriting.

Practice writing simple sentences about your weekend using the continuous cursive style on Handwriting template given previously.

Maths.

Time's tables:

Practise 4, 9 and 8 times tables.

Have a go at these questions:

- 1) 986×54
- 2) 563×21
- 3) 6789×456
- 4) 2567×507

Topic project.

Out of cardboard boxes try and create your own aqueducts and with a marble see if your aqueduct would work sufficiently!

Science

Get a measuring tape and with a partner, see how the volume of the sound gets higher or lower depending on your distance from where the sound is being made.

Spellings on the back.
Learn the definition as well as the spellings.

Due in Monday 11th
February 2018.

their	The bidders would pull out their money while the auctioneer raised a price.
although	Although the slaves were dressed in dirty clothes, they were still bought.
despicable	The way in which the slaves were treated was utterly despicable .
treacherous	In order for you to get through the crowded market you had to walk a treacherous path.
unwelcoming	The ways in which the buyers took their slaves was unwelcoming .
desirable	The slaves that could speak a foreign language were the most desirable .