

Year 5 Home learning – due in Monday 1st October

Reading.

Daily reading (discussing the book with an adult wherever possible). Pupils should be reading for 25 minutes each day of the school week, recording comments in their reading record every day.

Writing.

We've done lots of writing from the perspective of Jim and children like him in the last two weeks. For this task, I want you to imagine that you are the cruel, callous Mr Spink!

Write a diary entry from his perspective about the day when he visits the family in their room. Make sure you write in 1st person and in the past tense.

Maths.

Answer these questions

$$13579 + 45671$$

$$98634 + 38676$$

$$21954 - 2657$$

$$89723 - 74864$$

$$2.78 + 3.78$$

$$50 - 43.75$$

Times tables

Practice the 7, 8 and 9 times tables. Bring in a copy of your practice.

Spellings – see spelling books.

Write a sentence for each one in your homework book.

vicious,
precious,
conscious,
delicious,
malicious, suspicious ambitious,
cautious,
fictitious,
infectious,

Handwriting.

Practice handwriting. Write out a paragraph or page using continuous cursive handwriting.

www.teachhandwriting.co.uk