

Mixed practice

You've reached the end of Section 4. Now it's time to see how great you are at sentence structures and tenses. These exercises will test all of the topics in this section. Go get 'em...

1. a. Rewrite the sentence below in the future tense.

I keep baby dinosaurs in my room, and I feed them toast and jam.

.....
.....

b. Rewrite the sentence below in the past tense.

I forget my P.E. kit and lose my homework, so my teacher is cross with me.

.....
.....

2. Underline the verb in each sentence that is incorrect. Write the correct form on the line.

a. They play nicely together and takes turns. ....

b. John like chocolate, but he hates sweets. ....

c. She boils the eggs and fry the sausages. ....

d. I know Sarah very well, and I trusts her. ....

e. We grow vegetables and plants lots of seeds. ....

3. Complete the sentences below by adding 'have' or 'has'.

Brian ..... built an amazing sandcastle on the beach.

The bus ..... broken down, so I am going to be late.

You ..... challenged me to a duel, and I accept.

Mixed practice

4. Complete each sentence by writing in a subject.

..... hid under the bed.

..... has an impressive view of the harbour.

..... are arguing with the police officer.

5. Circle the subject in each sentence below.

Then complete each sentence by writing in an object.

Liam and Lucas pretended they couldn't see .....

The train whizzed past ..... at top speed.

Boris warned ..... about the hole in the garden.

6. Look at options a) and b) below. Write an 'A' in the box next to the active sentence and a 'P' in the box next to the passive sentence.

a. The birds wake me up every morning.

b. I am woken up by the birds every morning.

7. Complete the table using the correct form of 'to be' and the '-ing' form of each verb. The first line has been done for you.

verb	present tense	past tense
go	Harvey ..... is going ..... to school.	Harvey ..... was going ..... to school.
try	We ..... to do it.	We ..... to do it.
pop	My ears .....	My ears .....
write	They ..... a letter.	They ..... a letter.
fall	The tower ..... down.	The tower ..... down.

Wow, that was a whole lot of practice! Do you feel like the leader of the Grammagators now? Tick a box.

